BILL INCREASING SOCIAL SECURITY PASSES HOUSE WITH SENATE REVISIONS

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House completed congressional action and sent to President Eisenhower today a bill increasing social security benefits 7 per cent.

The House, without debate, accepted Senate-passed revisions in the bill.

The chief change from the original House version was a reduction in the amount of federal public assistance grants from 288 million dollars to 197 million.

Leaders Seek Adjournment By Weekend

WASHINGTON (AP)—Leaders kept the pressure on today in an effort to wind up the 85th Congress by the weekend.

In a day of slam-bang action Monday, the House killed labor and housing legislation. The Senate completed congressional action on a new farm bill, and confirmed the controversial nomination of Wilson V. White to be assistant attorney general in charge of civil rights.

Today the Senate turned to proposals to modify the effects of recent Supreme Court decisions, and the House to a minerals subsidy bill.

Neither of those issues generated the heat of the major measures disposed of Monday and Monday night, but both were controversial enough for possible verbal fireworks.

Both houses were knocking off smaller measures by dozens Monday under rules cutting off (Turn to Page Seven)

Pacifists Trying To Halt Work on New Missile Site

CHEYENNE, Wyo. (AP)—Two self-styled pacifists who are determined to halt construction of a missile launching site here say they will be joined by a Pennsylvania minister.

Kenneth Calkins, 23, made the announcement after he and his wife Eleanor, 22, were ejected from the area twice Monday.

Calkins said he and his wife and the Rev. Theodore Olson, 26, of Fallsington, Pa., would attempt to distribute leaflets urging the workmen not to work.

Federal and military authorities are undecided how to keep the Chicago couple and the Rev. Mr. Olson off the site.

Two air policemen escorted Mr. and Mrs. Olson from the installation after they passed out one leaflet protesting bases to a welder.

Calkins said he was here under auspices of the American Friends Service Committee in an effort to halt what he termed a "hopeless arms race with the Soviet Union." He said there are some religious persons affiliated with the group.

Kansas City Neighborhood Gives Vacationers Welcome

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. Philip J. Connealy and family returned from vacation Monday and what a hubbub.

They'd been gone only two weeks visiting his parents and her mother up at Decatur, Neb., but almost everyone along the first block of Concord Ave. west of Main St. turned out to welcome them home.

By latest and most reliable count there are 59 kids along this block. All of them except babies in arms kept a noisy, mobile lookout all day for the Connealy clan. Many mothers and a few fathers watched too.

At 5:12 p. m. the station wagon of accountant Connealy appeared and was quickly engulfed by 40 to 50 kids, all screaming.

Connealy finally got the idea. He was to drive around the

As the measure goes to the White House for the President's signature, beneficiaries under the federal old age and survivors program would get a 7 per cent increase in benefits in checks going out next Feb. 3, with a $3 minimum monthly increase.

The administration had endorsed that part of the bill but objected to federal financing of a bigger proportion of the public assistance program.

At the same time, the payroll tax on covered workers and employers will go up from 2 1/2 to 2 3/4 per cent starting Jan. 1, and the taxable wage base will be increased from $4,200 to $4,800 a year.

The increase will mean higher pay check deductions to covered workers, the amount rising from $94.50 to $120 a year.

Air Force Pushes on With Lunar Test Plans

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—The first disappointing failure was all but forgotten today as the Air Force pushed ahead with ambitious plans for the next attempt to shoot the moon.

Two days after the first massive U.S. moon rocket exploded 77 seconds after launching, there still was no official announcement on the exact cause.

Divers continued to probe 60 feet in the Atlantic to recover the splintered remains of the first-stage Thor missile 10 miles from the cape.

Moon project officers looked forward to their next try, which probably will come between Sept. 14-17. That is when the moon again will be closest to the earth.

Effort Under Way To Settle Gulf Strike

PITTSBURGH (AP)—An effort is underway today to settle the strike of 200 Gulf Oil Corp. truck drivers as federal and state mediators meet with union and management. Another meeting is scheduled for Thursday.

The three-week-old deadlock involves members of Petroleum Industry Drivers & Employees Local 273 who are seeking a union shop.

Negotiations with Federal Mediator Henry Maggolia and State Conciliator Howard DeBolt came to a halt last Friday.

block and come in the other way, the way they'd been expected, so they could see the banner flung across the street saying, "We Missed You All."

Hanging from the house was another: "Welcome Home Happy Honeymooners."

That was a joke. Beneath it caricatures of Mr. and Mrs. Connealy and their seven children—Joseph, 14, Dan, 12, Kathy, 10, Kevin, 9, John 7, Terry, 3, and Tim, 13 months.

The youngsters spilled two and three at a time out of the station wagon, a welter of pillows, blankets, sacks of groceries and suitcases in two luggage racks on top.

The family, with escort, moved toward the front door and someone shoved a cold beer in Connealy's hand.

Why all the fuss? Everyone on Concord avenue just loves the Connealys.

Grand Jury Investigation Into Fire Death Considered

DETROIT (AP)—Michigan Atty. Gen. Paul L. Adams and three prosecutors today considered calling a grand jury to investigate the mysterious fire death of Teamsters business agent Frank Kierdorf and the burning of a dry cleaning establishment.

They set up their meeting for the office of Wayne County Detroit Prosecutor Samuel Olsen. With Adams were Prosecutors Jerome O'Rourke of Genesee County and Frederick Ziemi of Oakland County.

Mother and Two Tots Killed by Runaway Truck

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP)—A woman and her two young sons were killed Monday by two-ton boulders from a dump truck that hurtled down a hill. The truck driver also died.

The woman's husband and daughter were injured. Both were reported in fair condition at a hospital.

One boulder smashed the automobile of Harry Jacobs, 31. Two others crushed his wife Estelle, 31. She was thrown from the car when it was struck by the truck, police said.

It was not determined what went wrong with the truck. There were indications the driver had attempted to apply the brakes.

The truck careened off the auto, then skidded on its side and jammed between a telephone pole and an iron utility pole. Albert Stone, 40, of Carthage, died in the smashed car.

Jacobs, his two sons, Robert, 6, and Scott, 1, and his daughter, Bonnie, 4, were trapped in the car. Rescuers used cranes and jacks to free them.

Girl's Slayer May Have Taken His Own Life

MACON, Ga. (AP)—An inquest will be held today to determine whether a deaf mute killed himself or was shot to death at a roadblock by officers seeking him in the slaying of a 7-year-old girl.

Parram Youngblood, a 32-year-old itinerant peddler from Toombsboro, Ga., died in a blaze of gunfire Monday when he slammed on the brakes of a stolen station wagon at the roadblock on a bridge near here and fired at officers.

The gun battle climaxed a mammoth manhunt for Youngblood, who was charged with kidnapping 7-year-old Margie Jones of Melvin, Ky., Saturday night.

The girl's body was found Monday in a field. She had been shot twice in the back with a rifle and apparently had been beaten on the head and choked. She had not been raped.

Sheriff George Hatcher of Wilkeson County said the Jones family had been visiting Youngblood and his mother at their home near Toombsboro.

The meeting, an effort to link the two incidents with eight dynamite explosions at Detroit business establishments since January, came on the heels of the surprising appearance of the long-sought Herman Kierdorf.

Herman, 68, himself a former Teamsters Union business agent, passed a lie detector test Monday, less than 24 hours after he voluntarily surrendered to police.

Although he still refused to talk about many facets of the case—including his whereabouts for the 13 days he was missing—he agreed to discuss three questions for the lie detector.

He said he had no prior knowledge of the burning of the dry cleaning establishment at Flint, Mich., that he was not on the scene, and that he did not help take the critically burned Frank to a hospital.

Herman had been missing since Aug. 4, the day Frank appeared at a Pontiac hospital with burns over 85 per cent of his body. Frank, 56, died four days later.

After 90 minutes of questioning Monday, Adams said Herman still refused to say anything about his activities after midnight, Aug. 3—the approximate time Frank was burned and the dry cleaning establishment was set on fire.

Sleeping Sickness on The Rise in Far East

TOKYO (AP)—Deadly sleeping sickness—encephalitis—is on the rise again in Japan and Korea, and welfare officials say it may reach epidemic proportions in the next few months.

The Welfare Ministry today reported 352 known cases in Japan this year, of which 42 died. In the past two weeks in south Korea there have been 297 cases reported, of which 71 died.

PASSAGE OF PEACE PLAN IS PREDICTED

By MAX HARRELSON UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)

An influential group of Asian and African countries prepared today to counter a Western-backed Middle East peace plan with a new resolution calling for the withdrawal of U. S. forces from Lebanon and British troops from Jordan.

Western diplomats insisted they had enough votes to win approval for their own proposal in the emergency U. N. General Assembly. But there were signs they were worried by the new developments.

Informed sources said Secretary of State Dulles had cancelled plans to return to Washington this afternoon.

He conferred with British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd this morning and scheduled a meeting with French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville this afternoon.

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Supporters of a Western-backed Middle East peace plan predicted today the U. N. General Assembly would approve it despite opposition from some Arab and Asian nations.

The resolution introduced by Norwegian Deputy Foreign Minister Hans Engen, with six other small nations as cosponsors, may come to a vote Wednesday night or Thursday. It asks Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold to make arrangements which would permit the withdrawal of American troops from Lebanon and British troops from Jordan.

Engen predicted Assembly approval. One Asian diplomat foresaw passage with 56 favorable votes and some abstentions in the 81-nation Assembly. But some Arab and Soviet sources expressed belief it would fail to get the necessary two-thirds of those voting.

India opposed the resolution because it did not demand immediate U. S.-British troop withdrawals and because it would lay the groundwork for sending more U. N. troops to the Middle East. Iraq also found the resolution unacceptable, and Yugoslavia disliked it.

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko said the resolution must be rejected. Foreign Minister Mahmoud Fawsi of the United Arab Republic refused comment but was expected to oppose it.

Red Yugoslavia Asking for More Economic Aid

WASHINGTON (AP)—Communist Yugoslavia is asking for additional American economic aid to finance a number of industrial projects that were to have been paid for out of loans from the Soviets.

The Soviets canceled some 285 million dollars in promised loans last May in a crackdown move against Yugoslav President Tito, who follows a course independent of Moscow control.

Officials said Monday night the Yugoslav government has turned to the United States with a petition for 250 million dollars to pay for construction of new power stations and fertilizer plants, railroad modernization and some highway equipment.

State Department officials were reported to be looking with favor on the loan request amid indications some money would be turned over shortly to the Yugoslavs.

The officials were said to be taking the view that Yugoslavia must be bolstered to help the country continue its course of independent communism.

During the year which ended June 30 the United States supplied Yugoslavia with 103 million dollars in economic aid. About 73 millions of this was in surplus wheat.

Southerners Set Back on Civil Rights

By ERNEST B. VACCARO

WASHINGTON (AP)—Southern Democratic senators licked their wounds today after two setbacks on the civil rights battle-ground.

They lost a seven-month fight Monday night when the Senate confirmed W. Wilson White, a Philadelphia lawyer, as assistant attorney general in charge of civil rights. The vote was 56-20.

The Southerners have opposed White since his nomination last January. But the debate Monday night was all the hotter because it followed news that the federal appeals court in St. Louis had overruled a district judge and ordered re-suspension of racial integration this fall at Little Rock Central High School.

Reaction to the appeals court decision was hot. Southern senators rushed out with statements denouncing it as "judicial tyranny" and describing it as tragic.

Some of the sharpest language of the fast-fading session of Congress was used in the debate against White and against President Eisenhower's use of troops last year to enforce court-ordered school integration at Little Rock.

SPECIAL SESSION OF THE STATE LEGISLATURE MAY BE CALLED BY EXECUTIVE

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Resumption of integration at Little Rock's Central High School was ordered Monday by the 8th U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals. Arkansas Gov. Orval Faubus promptly moved to fight it, possibly through a special legislative session.

The court, in a 6-1 decision, set aside a ruling of U. S. Dist. Judge Harry J. Lemley of Hope, Ark., which would have provided a 2 1/2-year "breathing spell" after a tense year of troop-enforced integration at the school.

At Little Rock, Faubus met behind closed doors with advisers. He had nothing to say publicly, but talk of a special legislative session mounted.

An administration source said Faubus probably would have the state legislators in Little Rock by a week from Wednesday.

The appeals court decision came just 16 days before school is scheduled to reopen at Central High.

Little Rock School Supt. Virgil Blossom said the school board would make an all-out fight to prevent seven Negro students from re-entering Central.

But an attorney for the school board, Richard C. Butler, said he did not know whether an appeal could be considered by the U. S. Supreme Court before the Sept. 2 opening of school. The high court is in recess until Oct. 6.

In Congress, Southerners bitterly attacked the decision.

"It is rather tragic that the Circuit Court of Appeals has wholly disregarded the welfare of both races and the will of the people," said Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark.).

Sen. Strom Thurmond (D-SC) said it appeared that "judicial tyranny in this country is running rampant over local self-government."

Among supporters of civil rights, Sen. Clifford Case (R-NJ) said he hoped Little Rock citizens would actively support authorities in carrying out integration.

Rep. James Roosevelt (D-Calif.) said the decision "points up more than ever the need for the President to announce to the country what his policy is going to be on enforcing the law of the land in Little Rock and everywhere else."

The board could ask the court to stay its order pending review by the Supreme Court. If the stay is granted, Judge Lemley's order would continue in force after the start of the school term.

Writing for the majority, Judge Marion C. Matthes of St. Louis said the issue narrowed down to whether public resistance, including (Turn to Page Seven)

No Elaborate Event for Baruch's 88th Birthday

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y. (AP)—Elder statesman Bernard M. Baruch was 88 today but he resisted attempts to turn the occasion into an elaborate event.

The self-made millionaire and adviser to presidents was asked by a newsmen whether he had any comment to make to the world on reaching 88.

His answer: "No."

To the reporter's question about his health, Baruch replied: "Fine, how are you?"

He is at Saratoga for an annual visit in which he takes the baths at the famed spa and also goes to the races.

Giant Atom Sub Poised for Launching at Groton, Conn.

GROTON, Conn. (AP)—Rear Adm. H. G. Rickover said today that the giant atomic submarine Triton will show the way for building big capital ships to travel under the seas.

His prediction was contained in a congratulatory message sent to the builders of the Triton, which was poised for ceremonial launching today.

The monster sub is the largest ever built. Officially listed at 5,900 tons, it will displace almost 8,000 tons when fully equipped and ready for trials early next year.

It will serve primarily as a floating and submerging distant warning station to sound alarm of approaching enemy planes or cruise-type missiles.

Rickover, called by many the father of nuclear submarines, said several days ago he would be unable to attend the launching ceremony because of the pressure of his work. There was a flurry of activity required for the job.

Little Rock Again Claims The Spotlight

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Court of Appeals decision overruling a district court and ordering resumption of integration at Little Rock's Central High School was described as a tragic and unhappy one today by Arkansas' Democratic senators.

Senator John L. McClellan told reporters: "It is rather tragic that the Circuit Court of Appeals has wholly disregarded the welfare of both races and the will of the people in overruling the decision of the court."

"It has substituted its judgment without exercising due respect for the equities and justice of the situation that prevails and the conditions that have been brought about in Little Rock by reason, first, of the erroneous and unjust decision of the Supreme Court, and second, by the unwise, indiscreet and illegal actions that have been perpetrated against the Little Rock community."

Senator J. William Fulbright in an interview declared:

"I deeply regret the court's decision. It presents the possibility of a civil war."

Shortway Backed In Study Made For Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A study prepared for the Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce reportedly backs the controversial Keystone Shortway. It also calls for an expanded highway program in Pennsylvania.

The report has not been acted upon by the chamber's traffic and transportation council or by the organization's board of directors—and thus does not represent chamber policy at this time.

The study, it was learned, said the 290-mile shortway which will run between Sharon and Stroudsburg will not damage the economy in the Philadelphia area nor hurt business in the city's port.

This finding is exactly opposite to the stand taken by Mayor Richardson Dilworth and other city officials who have maintained that the free expressway, to be built mainly with federal funds, would be harmful to Philadelphia so long as the Pennsylvania Turnpike is a toll road.

The chamber's study has been in preparation for many months.

Leader Deplores Acute Shortage Of Instructors

HARRISBURG (AP) — Gov. Leader has called attention to prospects for increased school enrollments and a shortage of well-prepared teachers in Pennsylvania by 1970.

To provide a solution to the double-barreled problem, Leader proposed a $122,358,000 spending program which would more than double facilities at Pennsylvania's 14 state teachers colleges.

The governor noted that of 73,000 teachers in the state, nearly 14,000 have 30 or more years of service. Within the next dozen years, he said, these skilled teachers will be retired.

"No other factor points up so well the shortage of well-prepared teachers to face us in 1970," he said in a weekend statement. "We must have replacements and we must have new teachers to handle swelling enrollments."

But 1970, Leader said, public school enrollments will have increased by more than 300,000 children.

According to State Police investigation, the car operated by Vaughn, Jr. and owned by Stephen Stanko of James City, struck the youth who was walking along the highway in the same direction as the car was headed. The machine overturned after careening down the highway about 100 feet from where the boy was struck and instantly killed.

Man Who Fleeced New-Found Friend Is Apprehended

Extradition proceedings were begun in Steuben County, N. Y. yesterday for the released convict who was befriended by a local man, and who returned his kindness by swiping everything not nailed down.

Apprehended by troopers in Painted Post, N. Y., was Gilbert Davis. He was making his way east by selling accessories off the 1957 Pontiac convertible stolen from Oliver Proper of 206 Frank street.

Proper had befriended chance-acquaintance Davis after the ex-con, who was just released from Lewisburg Federal Penitentiary in July, pictured himself a lonely victim of circumstance.

Proper invited the man home to sleep, awoke with an uneasy feeling about 3:45 a. m. last Thursday that his wallet, record player, many clothes and car had been taken. He was right.

Sheriff Larry Linder and Police Chief Mike Evan went to the county seat of Bath, N. Y. Monday to bring the culprit back. At the last minute, Davis refused to waive extradition and after consultation with Warren County District Attorney Samuel F. Bonavita legal proceedings were begun to return the man for a court appearance here. He faces charges of larceny, transporting a car across a state line.

The car was methodically being stripped of all accessories. Chief Evan said the spare tire, winter tires, tool boxes and some fishing tackle had all gone for gasoline. Davis refused to comment on where any of the missing articles had been unloaded.

Chief Evan also stated that the car had been "driven hard", and Davis told officers he had been to Virginia, Youngstown, Ohio, and in the vicinity of Buffalo before heading east toward Waterloo.

Surgeon Offers New Treatment Of Breast Cancer

By RENNIE TAYLOR
Associated Press Science Writer
ABOARD SS MATSONIA (AP) — A way of virtually knocking out breast cancer as a cause of death has become a possibility in the not distant future even though no blanket cure is in sight.

The idea is based on the simple arithmetic of breast cancer fatalities and consideration of what surgery can do. It postulates that women past the child-bearing age would free themselves of the danger of breast carcinoma by having the milk glands removed from their breasts even though there is no indication of malignancy.

This would mean extraction of about half the bulk of the tissues within the breasts, but not the removal or destruction of what breasts themselves. It also would serve as a start toward reshaping breasts for aesthetic reasons.

A surgeon who neither approved nor disapproved the idea brought it to light Monday in discussing the future of medicine before a group of about 50 doctors from all over the United States.

He is Clarence Berne, professor of surgery at the University of Southern California Medical School. His talk was part of a unique medical refresher course conducted by USC aboard this liner en route to Los Angeles from Honolulu.

High Accident Rate on Rivers Causes Concern

PITTSBURGH (AP)—State and local groups are attempting to cut down the high accident rate on Pittsburgh district rivers by increasing patrols and arresting offenders.

A representative of the governor's committee on motorboat safety announced the program Monday as part of a country-wide safety campaign directed from Washington.

At least six persons have been killed in motorboat accidents this summer on district rivers.

GET OUT VOTE CAMPAIGN

The National Grange is urging members of its 7,000 subordinate Granges to actively participate in a "Register and Get Out and Vote Campaign." Edward F. Holter, Lecturer of the National Grange, has suggested to local Grange officials that they take the lead in pulling all community organizations together in this project.

In explaining the individual's responsibility to the ballot, Holter quotes the following statement by Ralph Busnell Ports:

"The blood of free men, shed since the founding of my country, stains my ballot sheet. Whatever others may do, I will not carelessly make my mark. Those who died for this, my voice in my government, had a right to expect that I would prepare with every faculty to use it wisely, honestly and courageously. They did not die that blind partisans, or reckless might make a game of free elections.

"I will not be confused or deceived by propaganda, slogans or histrionics. I shield my eyes to the glitter of personalities, purge my mind of passion and prejudice and search diligently for the hidden truth. I must be free of all influence save conscience and justice.

"I vote as if my ballot alone decided the contest. I may lose my preference, but I will not throw away my sacred vote. For within the booth I hold in my humble hand the living proxy of all my country's honored dead."

Holter explains that the power of a democracy springs from its people, and that it is, therefore, important that every citizen take a proper and active interest in the politics of his country.

An echo of the successful Independence Day celebration sponsored by the Warren Jaycees over six weeks ago is heard in a request from the committee that all persons who were active selling tickets to help finance the affair turn in money by the end of this week to Frank Chiodo, at the Warren Drug Store. Hope the boys enjoy the desired results from this appeal.

Death of Mrs. Eva Brady at the age of 91 recalls to many her efficient work as matron at Rouse Hospital at the time her late husband, Mike Brady, was superintendent. Both were loved and respected by all, including guests and employees.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Federal appeal judges have dealt a shattering blow to attempts in the South to delay or prevent public school integration by mob protests or violence.

Last June a federal district judge in Arkansas, Harry J. Lemley, ordered the integration of Little Rock's Central High School be delayed 2 1/2 years. Monday he was overruled by the 8th U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals in St. Louis.

This circuit court not only ordered the integration of Negroes in Central High to continue, but issued a blazing attack on the idea that mob violence could block a federal court order.

The Little Rock school board which had sought the delay of integration, and got it from Lemley, will now appeal to the Supreme Court. But the outcome there seems predictable.

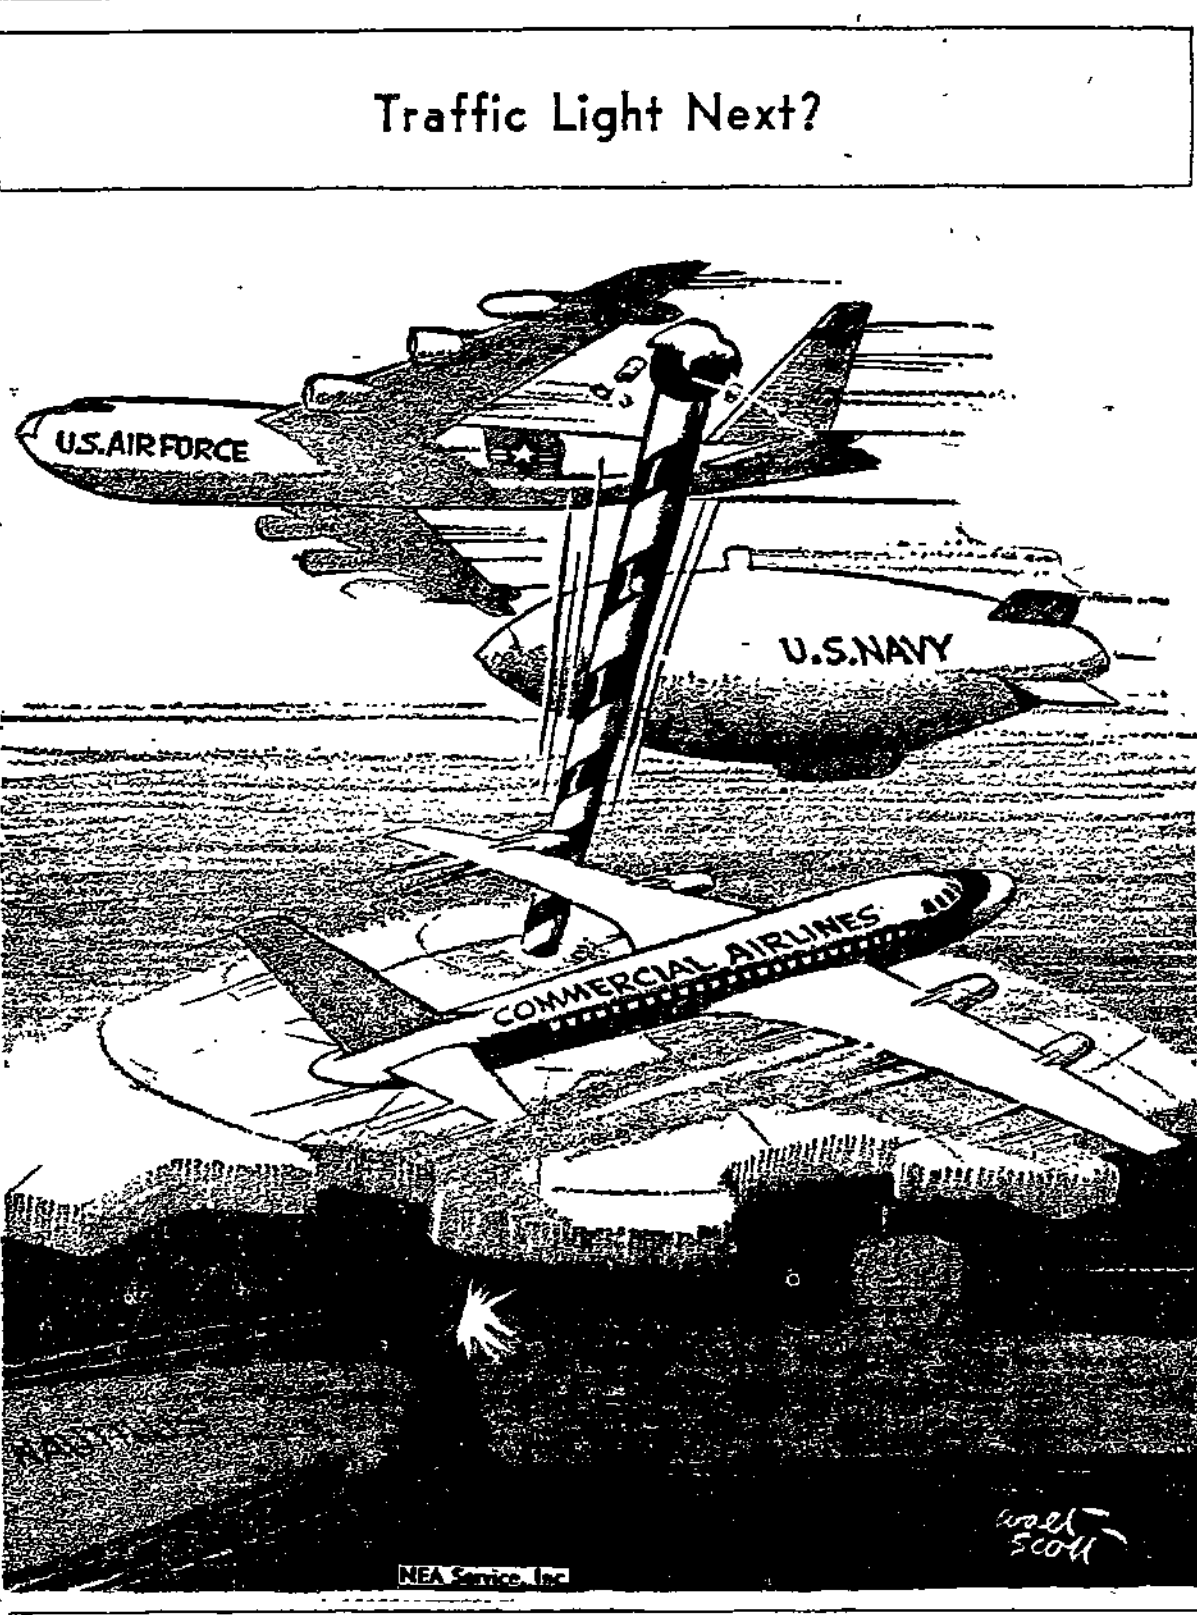

That the Supreme Court will uphold the circuit court and for the same reasons given by that court. Last Aug. 30 another federal district judge, Ronald Davies, ordered Negro children admitted to Central High. He did this in keeping with the Supreme Court decision of 1954 that segregation in the public schools is unconstitutional.

Davies acted in the face of warnings by Arkansas Gov. Orval Faubus that integration there would cause violence and bloodshed. (The school superintendent had said he was convinced integration could be carried out peacefully.)

Faubus then prevented Davies' order from going into effect by using his National Guardsmen to keep Negro children out of the high school. By this time there was mob violence.

He could have used the guardsmen to back up the court order. Since he did the opposite, it became plain that—if he got away with it—any Southern governor could do the same and nullify federal court orders.

So, to preserve the authority of the courts, President Eisenhower ordered in federal troops. Negro children then got into Central High.

Here and There

This portion of the column again today is reserved for another installment of news from a letter received last week from Fritz Kennett, former High School athlete, residing in San Diego, Calif.; We left off in yesterday's column, quoting from a paragraph telling about how easy it is to get a sun tan under the California skies. He continues: "Am travelling up to Los Angeles. Have just located a car which I will purchase if the price is right. It will be my transportation car which we will have in addition to our 'Broadwood'. This car is a '31 Ford. I read up on all the foreign imports—they get as high as forty miles to a gallon. This car of mine will get as high as sixty on a cup of tea. And if there is a doughnut in sight it will probably run on air 'til it gets the pastry. I have need of the car as my job is with a printing firm, the largest in San Diego, named Neyennesch (Nesh) for short. Managed to catch on a machine job on an intertype setting job. However, there is a lot of straight matter to be set as we print Connavair's paper for both San Diego and Fort Worth, along with all the school annuals in the town—I think they have about eight or ten high schools here. I came on to work two weeks in relief and have been here since March 13th. When I left Pelham I had thought of dropping off in Warren to see if you could use an operator with a little news writing on the side. But then, my mind had been practically made up (by my wife) to go west old man, so I didn't stop off. Wrote one story for one of the local papers about a fish I caught. They called up and checked on me. They called a second time and I wasn't home. I called the third time and they said they would use the story but it never appeared. They wanted me to write something else for them but I told them if the first effort didn't suit them, then there was no use continuing. They have called three times since. The paper has a 120,000 circulation twice a week. When I first arrived here I went to them for a job but it was during the slack season so I didn't catch on. I'm just as glad now as the place I work in is monstrous. It is a huge building about half the size of the East, Water, Second, Pennsylvania avenue block. We only have four magazine intertypes working for two shifts; six Miehle jobbers, two large and two small Heidelberg, two open presses, four of the largest extension delivery jobbers along with the two automatic cutting and jogging cutters and folders. In addition they have an offset plant just about as big in the other half of the building. We have 68 working day shift and I don't know how many on the night side, even though I had that shift for eight weeks. They run about 6,000 jobs a month according to their job tickets and everything is done on time unit of five minutes. You must mark down your time on every job. I had never seen this until I hit the West but I understand they started using it during the war on cost plus 20% markup. It certainly is an easy way for a jobber to figure out the cost of his various jobs. Sometimes it only takes a minute to run through a line but you have to make it a five minute unit." Kennett tells about a visit to Tijuana, Mexico, across the border from California, a resort city we had toured while in California back around 1932, then he returns to thoughts of Warren in this manner: "Back in 1953, the football squad of 1923 were on hand in Warren for the Homecoming. I was trying to figure it out the other night and couldn't see the reason for all the boys being on hand except that it was a homecoming of that squad of lettermen. We really had a ball for ourselves, especially at the Carver Hotel. Now the Carver House is gone and I think that several of the boys who were present that night are gone also—or maybe it was just a few of those who wished they could have attended. However, we agreed that night that we would meet again five years hence. This is the year the boys should be on hand and I just can't remember who was appointed to take care of the summoning of that group of popular pigskin perfectionists. Before there are any remarks made about F. "Teekay", who was always on hand for the Homecomings, I think that whoever is in charge should hereby be notified that I will not be there in person—but I'll be there in spirit. They will miss that old room at the top of the stairs at the Carver House, which always had the door wide open for 'W' men no matter what the year; they will miss Orrie Beebe and his organ; they will miss Old Fats Healy behind the mahogany; they will miss congenial Mel Anderson and his manager, I have forgotten his name. They will miss more than that if they don't get back to see the boys who remained at home like the Schumacher's, the Wolfes, Anna, Browns, Henrys, L. Dorseys, Petersons—gosh, my mind is going bad when I can't remember them all. But, when you start to work on that Homecoming edition, be sure and make mention of the fact that the '23 squad is supposed to be on hand as they had agreed to it at Dr. Cashman's cottage on the night of the shindig. Someone's just got to keep that ball rolling Ed, and I think it will be left up to you. Must close now Ed, as I have long ago run over my time limit and the pages are getting longer and the ink on this typewriter is running dry. Give my regards to all and say hello to Pake at the Elks and all the rest of my friends there also. Again I bid you good night for now. Take it easy and I hope that some day I will be able to peek in on you again to say 'hello' for old time's sake. Be sure to give my best regards to the greatest guy of them all—the Warren guy with the original crew cut, J. B. Leidig. Sincerely, Fritz."

NEW YORK (AP)—America has a 500-million-dollar annual industry built on laziness.

It is the greeting card industry. "It depends completely on the fact people are naturally lazy," said William D. Harris, "and that's why the business is going to last."

"People are going to get lazier and lazier. The greeting card appeals to this flaw in the human race. It saves them the trouble of sitting down and writing a note."

Bill, 41, slender, dark-eyed and energetic, is one of the brighter minds in the rapidly changing industry, and helped pioneer the humorous greeting card.

After his release from the Air Force in 1946, he invested all his $3,000 savings in a small greeting card firm. In a dozen years he built it to an annual volume of a million dollars.

"When I started," he recalled, "funny cards accounted only for about one per cent of the business. Mostly it was all hearts and flowers, ribbons and bows, satin and lace. Today 60 per cent of all cards are humorous."

Writing a hit greeting card is about as difficult as turning out a hit song.

Harris puts out some 200 new cards each year. He sifts through tens of thousands of contributed suggestions — "everybody in the country now seems to be writing greeting cards"—but buys only about 25. The other 175 he turns out himself, which makes him one of the most productive men in the industry.

Harris, son of Harry Harris, an old-time vaudeville performer, is an action man when it comes to humor. He has cards that pop, jump, wiggle, smoke and say "Merry Christmas."

Although birthday cards are the best sellers, followed by Christmas and get-well cards, the fastest growing specialty in the field today is the "slam card."

"I resisted the trend for some time, because I didn't really believe people wanted to send that kind of card," said Harris. "But they do. They're going over stronger all the time."

"One of our biggest sellers at Valentine time is a card that simply says, 'Drop Dead.'"

There is also a big market for the "peacemaker card."

Example: A card saying "Forgive me" which when opened adds "I lost my head." It shows a man holding his head under one arm.

"There is now a specialty card for practically any occasion you can name," said Harris. "there's even a card to send to someone who owes you money."

The greeting card industry is one of the few that doesn't worry about bad times.

"It's a depression-proof business," said Harris happily. "If times get tough, instead of sending each other gifts, people will exchange 10-cent greeting cards."

Business Mirror

NEW YORK (AP) — America's taste for fancy food hasn't let the recession get in its way. Importers of foreign delicacies and domestic producers of specialties say that business today is booming.

They credit record sales volume to two trends: 1. Increasing numbers of Americans go abroad each year and discover new foods they like; 2. Entertaining at home also is on the increase and this usually calls for something special for the guests, whether it originates abroad or in the United States.

Harold Roth, president of the National Assn. for the Specialty Food Trade, estimates that sales here on the specialty food industry, foreign and domestic, will hit a new peak this year in excess of 70 million dollars wholesale. Last year's sales came to 60 million, up 15 million from the previous million in 1955.

This is only a trifling part of the 75 billion dollars or more Americans spend at the grocery each year but it's one of the fastest growing items on the market list.

Roth says that imported delicacies account for about two-thirds of the total specialty food market. He cites annual imports of 50% million pounds of foreign made cheese, nearly half a million pounds of breadsticks from Italy, not to mention the caviar, truffles, pate de foie gras, fillets of wild boar, canned snails, smoked mussels and prepared pigeons, grouse and partridge.

This nation's production of gourmet foods is growing also. In all parts of the nation are flourishing small businesses using either treasured home recipes or a traditional regional dish.

Store sales of fancy foods are fairly even over the year but pick up noticeably at Christmas time.

Food processors of late have taken advantage of this by offering various combinations in Yuletide boxes. This practice has had such success that General Foods, as only one example, will expand its line this fall. Its gourmet foods division plans to add several new items and several new packaged combinations.

In many U.S. cities in the land the plain consumer can find most of gourmet products on sale. For just one example: In a small section of New York the gourmet can pick up fresh land snails from French Morocco, Yemen coffee, Greek feta (fresh cheese made from sheep's milk), pickled wild onions, sesame-coated bread sticks from Italy, camomile flowers—valued as a spice, some 200 kinds of Italian pasta products, and prosciutto bones from Italian pork for flavoring soups.

Ike's Arab Development Fund Spurs One for Latin-America

BY PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—Eleven years after inception of the Marshall Plan to aid Europe, there is still only one idea in Washington for solving problems in any part of the world that has anything wrong with it. The formula is, "throw 'em another hundred million dollars," more or less.

That came out in President Eisenhower's United Nations speech proposing an Arab development institution. It came out less than 24 hours earlier in the State Department's announcement that it was now ready to support a Latin-American regional development institution.

THE SPEED with which this latter idea was finally shoved over the wire was positively breath-taking. For this plan for an inter-American bank has been kicking around Washington since 1941. The answer before was always, "no." But last January the Latin-Americans began to get serious about having their own development bank, even though the need was questionable. The trips of Vice President Nixon and Dr. Milton Eisenhower built up the pressure.

Secretary of State John Foster Dulles flew to Rio for two days of talk with President Kubitschek and other Brazilian officials. That fixed it. While Dulles was in Rio, the Arab development institution idea got rolling at the White House.

WHEN DULLES got back to Washington on a Thursday, it became obvious that if a development institution was advocated for the Middle East, there would have to be one for Latin America.

The State Department staff worked on the inter-American development institution plan Friday, Saturday and Monday. When it was all set, Organization of American States diplomats were called to an evening meeting and told about it.

THE NEXT DAY Undersecretary of State for Economic Affairs C. Douglas Dillon issued a short, formal announcement. It said the U.S. is now prepared to consider establishment of an inter-American regional development institution which would receive support from all member countries.

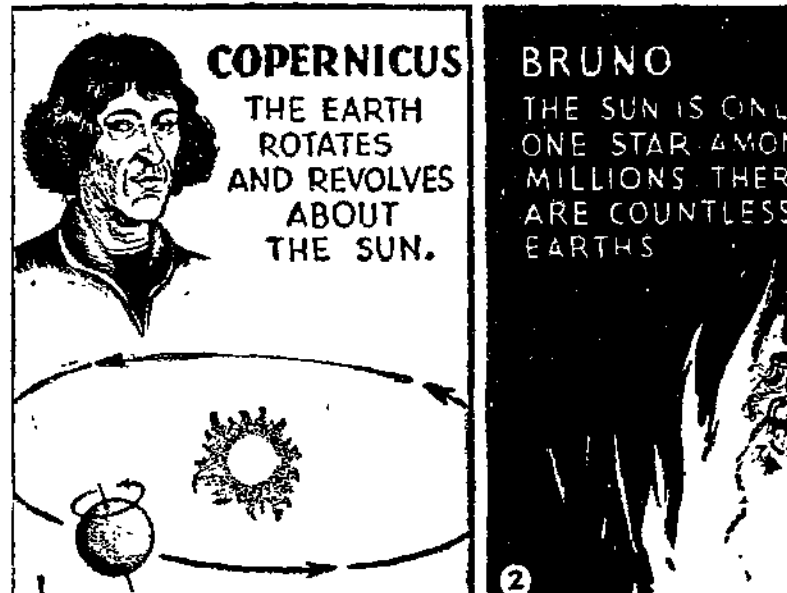

And the next morning in New York President Eisenhower lifted the veil on his Arab development institution.

The absolute need for either of these institutions is being seriously questioned, no matter how well-intentioned, noble and generous their motivation may be. The Arabs can still get all the money they need from the Eisenhower Doctrine funds, or Baghdad Pact military aid, if their projects are sound.

THE SAME THING goes for the Latin-Americans. They can get hard money loans from World Bank or Export-Import Bank. They can pay back hard money loans from development loan funds with soft money. They can get agricultural surpluses for almost any kind of funny money.

This situation is developing a new racket in Washington for the smart lawyers and influence boys. For a fee, they will advise foreign borrowers how to apply for hard money loans so that they will be turned down. After that, the foreign borrowers can go around the block and ask for loans from the soft money lending institutions, on easier terms.

OUTWARD TO THE STARS (2)—Copernicus

Man's knowledge of the universe moved ahead with the years.

(1) Nicolaus Copernicus (1473-1543), of Poland, was repelled by the complicated, earth-centered Ptolemaic universe which had been accepted as truth for centuries. From his observations, Copernicus came to the conclusion that the Earth was just another planet, rotating on its axis and revolving about the Sun. The Sun, and not the Earth, was the center of the universe. Shortly after his death, the Inquisition clamped its grip on Europe.

BRUNO

Man's knowledge of the universe moved ahead with the years.

(2) The Italian Giordano Bruno (1584-1600) was not an astronomer, but a philosopher. Herald of the modern age of science, he extended the Copernican system. He proclaimed that not only the Earth, but the Sun and all its planets were only a tiny part of the universe. For such heresy he was burned at the stake.

BRAHE

Man's knowledge of the universe moved ahead with the years.

(3) Tycho Brahe (1546-1601) built the first observatory in the western world, on an island off his native Denmark. Brahe was a great observer and contributed much to astronomy. But he was never able to accept Copernicus' theories.

(4) Brahe's assistant, Johannes Kepler (1571-1630) of Austria demolished the old Greek astronomy of perfect circular orbits for planets. His mathematics laid the groundwork for Newton's law of gravitation.

(5) The Italian Galileo Galilei (1564-1642) built the first astronomical telescope and was amazed when he turned it toward the Moon. He was the first man to see a heavenly body as it really was. And he declared that Copernicus was right—the Earth did indeed move about the Sun. But as an old man he was forced to recant his theories. It was for a later age to recognize his genius.

1st. Lutheran Picnic Is Enjoyable Affair

About 150 members and friends of the Sunday School of First Lutheran church met for their annual picnic Saturday at Camp Birdsall Eddy. Activities, which started at 1:30, included swimming, baseball, volleyball and badminton. The recreation committee, consisting of Jack McCool, chairman; Howard Flick, Herb Bautz, Russ Jackson, and Fred Olson, supervised games for the various age groups, and announced the winners as follows: Balloon dance, David Cobb and Beth Siefert; bubble gum contest, David Engle and Cindy Jackson; watermelon eating, Donald Drayer and Julie Sandblade; pin the patch, Corynne

Miller and Chris Sandblade; balloon balancing, Fred Haer; three-legged race, Eric Sandblade and Tom Anderson; backward race, Diane Miller.

Following the games, a delicious family style picnic dinner, supervised by the Dorcas Class, with Marie Leuthold as chairman, was served. During the day, Bob Hanson was on the job handing out pop and candy to the children.

PROGRAM-MEETING FOR WCTU MEMBERS
RUSSELL-WCTU members held their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Viola Putnam on Robbin's Hill, with a bountiful picnic dinner served on the lawn to 15 members, three visitors, and six children.

Mrs. Ellen Lundgren, vice president, conducted the business session, which opened with scripture and prayer by the leader and several choruses sung by the group. Following minutes of the July meeting, read by Mrs. Putnam, devotions were conducted by Mrs. Russell with scripture and prayer, followed by questions.

A card from Mrs. Jennie Clark expressed appreciation for flowers sent to her. Treasurer Viola Putnam reported a balance of $6.20, and members voted to send money, instead of hose, to the mission in Japan. All were reminded of the county convention to be held in September at Sugar Grove.

Several readings were given: Sentence Sermons, Mrs. Bradley; What Cigarettes Can Do, Mrs. Russell; Loyal Temperance Legion, Mrs. Lundgren. Members signed a card to send to Mrs. Martha Houghvot, who has been ill and is convalescing at the home of relatives in Corry. A collection was taken, all were invited to meet at the home of Mrs. Myrtle Nelson in September, and the session was concluded with prayer by Mrs. Bradley and Mrs. Haller.

Long-Time Friends Having Birthdays

Long-time friends in their home community but now many miles apart, geographically, two well known former business figures in Warren are exchanging greetings this week in observance of their 89th birthday anniversaries.

They are H. P. Stone, 309 Fourth avenue, long associated with Warren Axe and Tool Company, whose birth date is August 20; and Ray W. Norris, Sr., now living at 730 Rosa Park, St. Petersburg, Fla., born August 19.

Mr. Stone is in good health and seen regularly about town, but is having no special celebration for his 89th anniversary.

A note from Mrs. Norris brings greetings and renewal of their subscription to the Times-Mirror, which they read regularly and greatly enjoy. She expresses, also, her husband's regret that he is unable to come to Warren this summer to renew old friendships.

The Times-Mirror joins with many other friends, far and near, in best wishes to these two worthy gentlemen.

Dorothy Roe Says ---

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Women's Writer

If women wrote to Santa Claus, their first request would be for a mink coat, their second a dream kitchen.

This is a well-authenticated conclusion arrived at by Sam Reiner after 11 years of producing prizes for contests.

Reiner is a pleasant, quiet-spoken man who doesn't look at all like Santa Claus, but gives away a million dollars a year in contest prizes. This year, he says, it may hit two million.

A former brassiere salesman, Reiner decided to set up a business as a contest consultant shortly after he got out of the service in World War II. In the years since he has given away everything from the use of a palace on the Riviera to a mattress stuffed with money.

Says he: "Trends change in American dreams. Ten years ago women wanted household appliances more than anything else. Today the mink coat represents Utopia in the feminine mind."

"Travel is something practical. Everybody dreams about, and some of the most popular contest prizes are trips abroad for a family of four. Men want high-powered automobiles, particularly sports cars. The whole family dreams of having a swimming pool in the back yard. And boats of all kinds are increasingly popular."

To keep abreast of the trends in the tastes of the public, Reiner makes periodic surveys of housewives, businessmen and office workers to find out what they would ask for if they were given Aladdin's lamp. Through the surveys he has reached some other conclusions.

"Most people would rather have merchandise than money," he says. "For instance, the sight of an $8,000 mink coat is much more exciting to a woman than a check of the same value. Money is something most people expect to get in sufficient quantity just by working. But a trip to Europe is something that isn't within the everyday plans of the average family. Winning such a prize in a contest, for writing a jingle or solving a puzzle, puts life on a completely different, glamorous level. It's an experience they can enjoy every body dreams about, and some of the most popular contest prizes are trips abroad for a family of four. Men want high-powered automobiles, particularly sports cars. The whole family dreams of having a swimming pool in the back yard. And boats of all kinds are increasingly popular."

Other guests were in attendance from Youngsville, Warren, Sheffield, Sigel, Endeavor, Butler, Erie, Harrisburg, Ridgeway, Jersey Shore, Shippensburg, Meadville, Clarington, Tionesta, Bradford and Barnes.

Attending from here were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hendrickson and family, M. H. Hendrickson, E. E. Hendrickson, Albert Hendrickson and Louis Hendrickson.

The gathering was held in the picnic grove and it was voted to assemble at the same place next year, the date being the third Sunday in August.

Omaha (AP)—Paul Waner, 55, whose potent bat brought him into baseball's Hall of Fame, suffered a heart attack Monday night.

However, Waner was permitted no visitors.

Last month Waner was signed as a hitting instructor by the St. Louis Cardinals. He was in Omaha to work with batters of the St. Louis American Association farm club.

Bergesch said Waner had returned to his hotel Monday night after the ball game and was stricken there a short time afterward.

amendments and nearly all debate. The loudest and sharpest talk of Monday's long session came in the Senate over the nomination of White, a Philadelphia lawyer, to head the new Civil Rights Division in the Department of Justice.

The nomination, pending since January, finally went through 56-20. Southern senators protested to the last that it was a pay-off to White for his legal advice that President Eisenhower had power to use troops to back up court integration in Little Rock, Ark.

White, in another Justice Department post, did much of the legal work in that situation. In hearings on the nomination he insisted he only gave advice on what might be legally done as a last resort.

The discussion was heated up by the St. Louis Court of Appeals ruling Monday which threw out a district judge's order allowing a 2½-year delay in Little Rock integration.

The farm measure was sent to the White House on a voice vote by the Senate late in the night. It goes part way—but not as far as the administration would like—toward Secretary of Agriculture Benson's goal of cutting down farm price support levels and loosening controls over production. It heads off a big cut in cotton and rice acreage that would have been required under existing law.

ing mob violence, was sufficient cause to nullify a federal court order directing the school board to carry out its plan for gradual integration of the Little Rock schools.

"We say the time has not yet come in these United States when an order of a federal court must be whittled away, watered down or shamefully withdrawn in the face of violent and unlawful acts..." Judge Mathews wrote.

Chief Justice Archibald K. Gardner of Huron, S.D., was the only dissenter. He said the school board had acted in good faith and that Judge Lemley's decision suspending integration had been based "on realities and conditions, rather than theories."

Judge Mathews emphasized the importance of the decision on integration of Southern schools. Allowing Lemley's order to stand, he said, would mean an open invitation for other school districts to resort to violence.

Judge Lemley suspended the integration plan last June 21. It was at the request of the school board. Blossom, a key witness, testified that it was impossible to conduct normal classes because of incidents.

Faubus called out the National Guard at the start of school to keep the nine Negro students from attending classes. They had been selected to begin what the school board called gradual integration.

U.S. Dist. Judge Ronald Davies of Fargo, N.D., on a temporary assignment in Arkansas, ordered Faubus to withdraw the guard.

When mob violence followed outside the school the next day, President Eisenhower sent federal troops to restore order and enforce the integration.

AGGRESSION CHARGED

CAIRO (AP)—The newspaper Al Ahram today quoted Premier Feisal of Saudi Arabia as saying in an interview that American and British landings in Lebanon and Jordan were aggressions.

ple of Arkansas with a very unhappy situation and I am very unhappy about it."

Representative Brooks Hays, Democrat, Arkansas, who represents the Little Rock district, said he hopes a solution will be found.

"It seems to me," he said, "that under the 1955 decision the Supreme Court recognized the importance of allowing the judges closest to the situation the discretion of determining the time element."

"It is regrettable that the Court of Appeals overruled the findings in this case. It poses a difficult problem for the school board and the community leadership, but their resources are great and we can hope that a solution will be found."

Senator Richard B. Russell, Democrat, Georgia, called the court's decision unrealistic and unfortunate.

Rep. Smith Enters Denial of Charges

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Wint Smith (R-Kan.) denied under oath today that pressure from high places squelched a 1953 investigation of teamster boss James R. Hoffa.

Smith said the hearings by a House subcommittee had run their course by the time he gave them to a close in Detroit.

Testifying before the Senate Rackets Investigating Committee, Smith said in reply to questions:

1. He never received anything of value from Hoffa to influence the inquiry.
2. He never has received campaign contributions from Hoffa or from organized labor.
3. Hoffa received nothing but fair treatment from the House Labor subcommittee in the 1953 inquiry.

Critical Shortage of Water Grips New Delhi

NEW DELHI (AP)—A critical water shortage gripped New Delhi for the third day today as army engineers sought to bring the wandering Jumna River back within range of city pumping stations.

More than 3,500 laborers worked around the clock to dig connecting channels between the pumping stations and the river, which shifted course in the wake of monsoon floods. The river's level also dropped.

Water mains throughout the city were turned on for only brief periods in the morning and afternoon.

Ike Expected To Affix Signature To Farm Measure

WASHINGTON (AP)—A farm bill that got rush treatment was White House-bound today amid predictions it will be signed by President Eisenhower.

Chairman Allen J. Ellender (D-Committee) said he was reasonably certain Eisenhower would sign the bill, which the Senate passed by voice vote Monday night. The House passed it last week.

Secretary of Agriculture Benson, who supported most of the bill's provisions, indicated earlier that the President would sign the measure if it gained passage.

The measure would prevent a sharp cutback in planting of cotton and rice, allow corn farmers to rid themselves of all planting controls, and extend for three more years a subsidy program for domestic wool growers.

Another provision—which the administration especially likes—would permit lower government price supports on cotton, rice, corn and other livestock feed grains.

Benson said in a statement that it was his understanding Congress would act on two other pieces of farm legislation before it quits.

One would extend the farm surplus disposal law for two years with 3½ billion dollars in additional authority for overseas sales and gifts of farm surpluses.

Benson said the second bill was one pending in the Senate calling for state participation in aid programs for farmers-hit by natural disasters.

Paratrooper Has Close Call at Ft. Campbell

FT. CAMPBELL, Ky. (AP)—An unconscious paratrooper, his chute lines snarled, was pulled to safety after dangling 1,800 feet in the air outside an airplane Monday.

Pvt. David L. Creager, 18, of the 101st Airborne Division jumped from a transport 1,800 feet up.

As he hung there, the crewman Ohio reserve unit—tied ropes around his static lines and slowly pulled him toward the plane.

Ten minutes later they had him inside, getting artificial respiration from the only flight surgeon in the 16-plane flight. He was treated for minor injuries.

The accident occurred as the airmen of the 356th Troop Carrier Squadron, from Clinton County, Ohio, Air Force Base, on weekend duty, were returning 250 paratroopers here from an exercise at the Ohio field.

Pennsy Stockholders' Suit Is Dismissed

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Judge C. William Kraft of the U. S. District Court has dismissed a suit by stockholder Randolph Phillips seeking to upset the May election of six management-nominated directors of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

The jurist handed down a 10,000-word opinion Monday ruling against Phillips and two other stockholders, Charles Schwartz and Louis Guadagni.

Phillips had sought a seat on the board as an independent director. After his defeat, he filed suit against the railroad claiming the election was invalid because of "false and misleading" statements about him in the company's proxy statement.

Defeated Harris Vows To Fight Into Sharper Form

Champion Is Compelled to Climb From Floor in Second To Battle Down Challenger

By JACK STEVENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Dissatisfied with his 12th-round knockout of game but outclassed Roy Harris, world heavyweight champion Patterson vowed today to fight his way into sharper form.

His timing apparently suffering from his yearlong layoff, the 23-year-old champion had to climb from the floor to successfully defend his title Monday night against the courageous but sometimes awkward challenger from Cut and Shoot, Tex.

Patterson was down for a three count from a left and right in the second round but bounced up to take command from the next round on. He scored four knockdowns.

With Harris far behind on points and bleeding from a battered nose and cuts near both eyes, his veteran trainer, Bill Gore, asked that the fight be stopped after the 12th round.

"I had it stopped," Gore declared. "The fighter wanted to continue."

"I'm more dissatisfied with this fight than any one I've fought in the last few years," Patterson declared. "If I had been able to get started it might have been a different fight. I know that if both of us had more fights we would have looked a lot better. I'll probably fight more often now."

Stopping the fight, which goes into the record as a 12th-round knockout, brought the first defeat to the picturesque Texan from the Big Thicket country near Houston. It was the third successful title defense for Patterson, who won the championship in 1956 at 21.

The champion from New York spotted his foe 9½ pounds at 184½ to 194 but landed the power punches. He knocked Harris down for an eight count in the seventh with a right to the side of the head. In the eighth Roy was down for counts of seven and three. He took a nine count in the 12th.

But fans who tabbed the Texan an easy mark and made him a 6-1 underdog were surprised to watch a bristling battle and a courageous showing from the challenger.

At times his unorthodox style in itself served to stall Patterson's attack.

RETAINS TITLE

Floyd Patterson

Approximately 20,000 fans watched the open-air battle at Wrigley Field and another 200,000 by closed-circuit television in theaters across the nation.

The gross gate here was estimated at $228,000, the gross in theaters at a million dollars. Harris collects his $100,000 guarantee. Patterson's take it is estimated, will be more than $200,000.

Patterson's manager Cus D'Amato, still feuding with the powerful International Boxing Club, announced the champion is committed to a title defense next June in Colorado Springs, Colo. But he didn't name an opponent and he left open the possibility that Floyd might fight in the meantime.

Patterson termed Monday night's fight the toughest of his three defenses. The others, against Hurricane Jackson and Pete Rademacher last year, also ended in knockouts.

Monday Win Places Orioles Within Half Game of Fourth

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Whether the New York Yankees can blow their American League lead is a question to be considered by guys who smoke stuff they don't sell at the supermarket. But can the Orioles give Baltimore its first finish in the first division?

The Birds, who have improved each year since their rebirth in 1954, finished just a game short of fourth-place Detroit last season. And after drubbing Kansas City 8-2 in the only major league game scheduled Monday, the Orioles now are within half a game of the fourth-place Tigers.

Even with an 11-game losing skid—longest slump in either league this season—the Orioles have spent most of their time in the first division in the last month. The slump tumbled them from second to sixth. They slipped past Cleveland into fifth by winning their third in a row Monday night. Baltimore had only one hit—a third-inning bunt by Willie Mirande—but held a 1-1 tie with the A's until opening up against Ralph Terry (7-10) in a seven-run sixth inning. Gene Woodling socked a two-run homer and Dick Williams crashed a three-run shot.

Hec Brown (5-3) won it on a nine-hitter. Roger Maris scored both runs for the A's, belting his 22nd home run in the eighth after singling and scoring for a 1-1 tie in the fourth on Harry Simpson's single and Hal Smith's sacrifice fly.

The Yankees, who lead by 1½ after losing 8 of their last 11, open their last home stand against the Western clubs tonight against Cleveland. Whitey Ford goes for his 15th victory. Cal McLish (12-6) is the Indians' pick.

Speaking of Sports

Television coverage of semi-final and final rounds of National Singles Tennis Championships at West Side Tennis Club in Forest Hills, New York, will be presented by NBC-TV September 6 and 7. Former champion Don Budge will be one of the commentators for the tennis telecasts, with another announcer to be named. Budge won National Singles crown in 1937 and '38 and in the latter year he scored first and only "grand slam" of tennis by winning U. S., Wimbledon, French and Australian singles titles, the TV coverage will begin with men's semi-final round on the sixth, approximately at 5 p. m. Women's and men's finals will be seen Sept. 7 at 2 p. m. World's top amateur players will compete in the tourney, which starts Aug. 29. Defending champions are Althea Gibson and Australia's Mal Anderson.

Sixty-two boys reported for physicals recently for Kane Wolves. This included numerous freshmen and sophomores.

By virtue of a repeat performance which has no parallel in tournament competition, Industrial League of Monterey, Mexico will have the opportunity to defend its title as Little League World Series champions in the annual classic which opens at Williamsport today. No defending champion in the 11-year history of the World Series has qualified for a second crack at the championship, although there have been rare instances of repeat regional winners. Mexicans will be without many of the players who helped win the title in 1957, including brilliant, ambidextrous Macias whose pitching and versatility was in a large measure responsible for the team's rag-to-riches sweep. The Series opens today with North winner playing East. Mexico opposes Canadian champions in the second game. Wednesday, South meets Mexico-Canada winner while West meets winner of North-East game. Finals are slated for Friday at 3 p. m.

Manager Casey Calls a Special Monday Practice

By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—So the New York Yankees don't like the idea of practicing on an off day?

"Very interesting," croaked Prof. Casey Stengel. "But nobody has complained to me. I wouldn't know anything about what they think."

Disturbed because the Bombers have lost 8 of their last 11, Manager Stengel called a special practice Monday. It pained some of the players and they did some grumbling. But none would do his complaining publicly.

"If they don't like it, they ought to read their contracts," rasped Stengel. "I'm the manager and as long as I'm here they'll do just what I tell them to do."

"Furthermore, if they don't snap out of it, we'll have more of those off-day workouts. So they'd better get used to it."

Stengel obviously was annoyed both at the attitude of the players toward the practice and their run-of-the-mill play on the field. They're still 1½ games ahead of the rampaging Chicago White Sox and they open a nine-game set against the Western clubs tonight at the Stadium. The Cleveland Indians are the first visitors and later in the week the Sox roll in for three games.

Braves and Bums Open Five-Game Series at L. A.

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Milwaukee Braves may be eight games ahead in the National League race, but they're still trying to catch up with the Los Angeles Dodgers, who are 14 games behind.

The Braves and the Dodgers play a two-night doubleheader that opens a five-game series at Los Angeles today.

The Braves, who have taken 11 of 14 from Cincinnati, stand 12-6 against St. Louis and 11-5 against San Francisco, are only 6-9 against the Dodgers. Milwaukee holds an edge on every other club.

The Braves, riding a seven-game winning streak that matches the longest in the NL this season, lost their first seven meetings with the Dodgers this season. They have won six of the last eight, however. They will send Pat Joey Jay (7-4) and rookie Carl Willey (8-3) against the Dodgers.

The fourth-place Dodgers, who have won five of their last six, will start Don Drysdale and Johnny Podres.

The third-place Pittsburgh Pirates send Ronnie Kline (11-11) against Taylor Phillips (6-6) of the Cubs at Chicago.

The Phillies were at St. Louis for a night game with Jack Sanford (7-11) facing the Cards' Wilmer Mizell (8-9).

No NL games were scheduled Monday.

Baltimore defeated Kansas City 8-2 in the only American League game scheduled.

Pirates Become Darkhorse Candidate to Give Braves A Run for the Series Money

By LARRY

Unrated by experts, ignored by fans in the seven other National League cities, but respected by their opponents before the season ever started, Pittsburgh Pirates of 1958 have now become the popular darkhorse candidate to give defending champion Milwaukee Braves a run for their World Series money.

This feeling for National League's new "Team of Destiny," didn't come easy, for the Bucs long have been the doormat of senior circuit. And while frenzied fans in Pittsburgh are happily predicting pennant, Pirates, players and officials feel that such talk is a big premature, perhaps, although the way they're playing as the hectic race enters backstretch run, anything can happen.

What has made Pittsburgh into a sudden contender and box-office favorite? Are they as good as the "Whiz Kids" of Philadelphia, who surprised a lot of people by winning the 1950 pennant under even more seemingly insurmountable odds? Or is it just simply a case of a group of youngsters finally reaching the maturity point predicted by experts these last several seasons? It very probably is the latter!

As any manager will tell you, from the time baseball started, a club can hope to go only as far as its pitching will take them. Battling Pirates of '58,

Danny Murtaugh's Dandies, have been alternately good-and-bad this year, depending on how good-or-bad the pitching has been well-nigh sensational.

Hitters, except Bob Skinner, actually, were the ones who left the Bucs in the lurch, but the Pirates' Big Three—Bob Friend, Ronnie Kline and Vern Law were bolstered in time by the tremendous-and-sensational pitching of a pair of PCL graduates, George Witt and Curt Raydon.

There are many cases in baseball history which say the Pirates of '58 could become baseball's new darlings. The personnel is there, and the club has developed a personality of its own this year. It is a colorful and exciting nine in its own quiet way—and this is a tribute to the Bucs' manager, Murtaugh, who has undoubtedly surprised a lot of people with his astute and sound leadership.

Regardless what happens between now and September 28,

Betts Machine Outscores Jones Chevrolet 6 to 2

Opening round of Warren City Softball League's Shaughnessy playoffs Monday evening saw Betts Machine Shop Black Knights draw first blood when they out-scored Jones Chevrolet 6-2 on West Side diamond.

Ken Sorensen's steady, four-hit pitching and timely hitting on the part of Black Knights, were more than the automobile boys could cope with.

A tight game until the fifth frame, Betts was holding a slim 2-1 lead. Black Knights struck for their two markers in the second inning when Rico Bonavita slashed a double and rode home on a single by Bill Massa, scoring on Bob Schenck's sacrifice fly to right. Schenck got one of these back in the third on Bob Fitch's walk and a single by Ray Ritchie.

Betts iced the contest with dual markers in each of the fifth and sixth innings. A double by Bud Berdine, single by Sid Cummings and Bonavita's sacrifice fly, were responsible in the fifth, and Schenck's triple aided by Lefty Haight's squeeze bunt single were features of the sixth.

Sheffield picked up its final run without benefit of a hit. A hit batsman, stolen base and an error gave them their final tally.

Betts will try to clinch best two out of three series when they meet Sheffield again Wednesday, at Sheffield.

Playoffs will find Soda Mineral and Nino's Restaurant (1st and 4th respectively in league standings) battling best two out of three, and Betts Machine and Jones Chevrolet (2nd and 3rd) going the same. Winners of both circuits will play for championship, best three out of five.

1957 Champions Are Entered in Tennis Tourney

Last year's champions have registered for the Jaycee Junior Tennis Tournament, according to the committee which met last evening to make further plans for the week-long play beginning next Monday on Beaty Tennis Courts. Chairman Don Norris announced that entries will be received until Monday. Entry blanks are appearing daily in Times-Mirror.

It is expected that all matches will be held at night, beginning at 6 p. m., not interfering with summer jobs and football practice.

Success of last season's tournament was noted by the committee in their preparations. Over 60 teen-agers participated and the matches were hotly contested, until Blair Smoulder, Sally Scalse, Mark Peterson and Priscilla Ross emerged champions of their respective divisions. Miss Scalse has already sent in her entry blank and will return to defend her Junior Girls' title. Others are expected to follow suit, and, with other players gaining a year's experience, champions should be hard put to retain their titles.

Junior Tennis Tournament is merely one in a series of Jaycee programs held during the year to foster physical witness among the youth of our nation. President Eisenhower keynoted the fitness program with his National Committee on Fitness for Youth, and tennis is one of the areas in which United States Junior Chamber of Commerce has placed the most emphasis.

Tennis courts in Warren, built some years ago, have brought tennis back to this town in a big way, and Jaycees sponsor this tournament to give those players who have been working out all summer a chance to play in competition against others of their own caliber.

Former Bank Employee Is Arrested by the F.B.I.

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The FBI has arrested Donald L. Ramsey, 23, of Trafford, in connection with the stealing of a money bag containing $6,878 in cash and checks from the Monroeville Branch of the Fidelity Trust Co.

Ramsey, a former bank employee, was placed under $1,000 bond pending federal grand jury action.

The FBI said the money bag, taken Aug. 4, had been deposited by a large food market. More than $2,000 cash and about $3,800 in checks have been recovered.

Dickerson Named To Succeed Late U. C. L. A. Coach

LOS ANGELES (AP)—George Dickerson succeeds the late Henry (Red) Sanders as UCLA's head football coach.

The 45-year-old Dickerson, a UCLA alumnus, was Sander's first assistant and handled a great mass of detail for him, including liaison between student-athletes and faculty.

Sanders, eulogized at a memorial service Monday as "an authentic genius," died last Thursday of a heart attack. He was 53.

Athletic Director Wilbur Johns, in announcing the appointment Monday, said Dickerson was not hired on an interim basis and that his contract will extend for "more than one year." Exact tenure and the salary were not disclosed.

Charges of Extortion Ignored by Grand Jury

WASHINGTON, Pa. (AP)—Charges of extortion and misfeasance in office against Democratic State Sen. William J. Lane were ignored Monday by a Washington County grand jury.

Mike Packrall of Centerville had brought the charges. Previously, Lane had been indicted on 17 similar charges which were later dismissed by Washington County Court.

A political opponent of Lane, Packrall had accused him of receiving expenses as a Washington County commissioner while he also was serving as a state senator.

Elk Co. Woman Given Seven Days in Jail

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Mrs. Rose Marie Rieder of St. Marys was fined $500 Monday after she pleaded guilty to embezzling charges.

Mrs. Rieder, mother of three, pleaded guilty to embezzling $1,700 from the Elk County National Bank of Ridgway.

U. S. District Court Judge Wallace S. Gourley also sentenced the former teller to seven days in jail.

Entries Are Being Taken At Kinzua

Committee for the 3rd annual Kinzua Valley Open Golf Tourney is composed of Jim McCool, George Eberhardt, George Larson and Sam Brobst.

Each of these men has been busily preparing prize lists and readying the starting times as they come in.

Entry forms are available from any of the committee or at the clubhouse in Kinzua.

Latest entries are 'Chink' Collins, one of the all-time golfing greats of this area; Creed Erickson, who has been burning up the course lately with his long game; and Frank Wolfe, one of the better known top-flight golfers in the area.

Also expected to enter Wednesday are such top-notchers as Joe Scallise, Dan "The Hat" Lucia, Hal Bright, Dick Munch, Joe Meley, Dale Bean, Leo Salerno, Tom Fisher, to name a few of the earlier ones.

Area golfers are again reminded that there are four flights, scratch to 79; 80 to 89; 90 to 99; and 100 and over. All of these flights will pay off in prizes to a long list of the finishers.

Lunch will be served starting at 11:00 a. m. and tee-off time begins at 9:00 a. m.

Harris Gets Off Deck Four Times Before Final Bell

By PATRICK MCNULTY
 Associated Press Sports Writer
LOS ANGELES (AP)—Blinking at the dressing room floor from under a towel, battered but gallant Roy Harris said:

"He's the hardest puncher I've ever met. He's a great fighter."

Across the hall in the champion's dressing room, unmarked Floyd Patterson paused from doing situps and said:

"It's the toughest fight I've had since I've been champion. He was very game."

Harris got off the deck four times before his trainer asked that the title fight be stopped after the 12th round Monday night.

"I didn't want Roy cut any more," said Bill Gore. "He wanted to continue and yelled 'let me go, let me go.' But I said, 'no, Roy. There'll be other fights.'"

"I never lost my senses," said Harris. "I would have liked to have finished."

"When I knocked him down in the second round I thought I could get him, but I guess I got too anxious."

"I'd like to fight him again—I think I could lick him," said Harris, who surprised the 20,000 fans and the champion, too, when he dropped Patterson for a three count in the second round.

NATIONAL DOUBLES

BROOKLINE, Mass. (AP)—The 78th National Doubles Tennis Championships swing into full gear today with Australian and American Davis Cup stars down to make their initial appearance on Longwood's grass courts.

The Aussies, boasting three teams in the first five seeds, moved in from Newport, R. I., where Mal Anderson captured the singles and Ashley Cooper and Neale Fraser won the doubles of the annual Men's Invitational Tournament.

Capt. James Cook made the first English explorations on the coast of Alaska in 1776.

Jaycee's Hole-In-One Contest Is Open to All

Anyone interested in taking home $100 in cash while simultaneously supporting Jaycees civic service projects are urged to try their luck at Jaycees' first Hole-In-One contest slated for Saturday at Bill's Driving Range in Starbuck from 10 a. m. until dark.

Golfing sharpshooters who enter the contest will be shooting for a pin which lies approximately 100 yards away. Should no one manage to get a ball into the cup during the day, a prize of $25 will be awarded to the man, woman, boy or girl who comes closest to the pin. Other cash prizes will be awarded on an hourly basis.

For $1, anyone can try their luck—and luck, not skill, is the primary ingredient for success in a Hole-In-One contest—on three shots at the pin. Jaycees are going to construct a regular putting green at the range on which the pin and hole will be situated. Markers will be on hand to measure each shot to determine winners in the closest-to-the-pin categories.

Appearance of a "mystery celebrity," golf pro will add heightened interest to the days' competition. Mystery pro will demonstrate various golf shots at 2 p. m.

Hal Conario, Jaycee chairman of the project, emphasized again that anyone is eligible to compete. Males and females of all ages are urged to enter the competition. Golf balls and clubs will be donated by the driving range.

Local Swimmers To Compete in Meet at Erie

Tomorrow afternoon, ten members of Conewango Valley Country Club Swimming Team with instructor Pat Madden, will compete in Lake Shore Swimming Meet at Erie.

At Kalkwa Club last week, the team placed in the top five in all events in a meet against swimmers from the tri-state area.

Young "Zippo" Beatty, 10 year old "swimming marvel," will be out to better his time of 15 seconds which broke Kalkwa pool record in the 25 yard free style event.

Coach Madden will also have Linda Werner, who brought home a third place medal in Girls' 12-and-under 50-yard free-style; Sue Werner, Lane Donovan, Lee Ritchie, Lizz Webster, Ed Branch, Jack Branch, Jerry Lauffenburger and Clyde Baker in the water for the local competition.

"Madden, himself, will swim the 200-yard free-style and 100-yard butterfly in men's division.

G.O.P. Platform Committee Is Meeting Today

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Republican State Platform Committee assembled in Harrisburg today to hear suggestions for a platform that will be adopted at a conference of the GOP State Committee in Pittsburgh Sept. 6.

Today's meeting was the last of three scheduled by the GOP to help prepare a platform for the November elections.

Meetings were held last Thursday in Philadelphia and Monday in Pittsburgh.

More than 30 representatives of various groups attended Monday's meeting.

But disappointment that more "top-flight" leaders failed to attend was expressed by Rep. Albert W. Johnson (R-McKean), chairman of the Platform Committee. He said:

"We have a general idea of what they want, but we have no specific ideas."

Johnson singled out Pittsburgh's Chamber of Commerce and Urban Redevelopment Authority as organizations which failed to send representatives before the committee, adding:

"I understand they were invited by Mr. Flaherty (Edward L. Flaherty, Allegheny County Republican chairman)."

Proposals for a "Bill of rights" for rank-and-file union members and more stringent traffic laws were among those presented.

The seven-part labor "Bill of Rights" was proposed by Rep. Willard F. Agnew Jr. (R-Allegheny). It suggested:

1. Freedom of speech in all union matters.
2. Annual financial report to each member.
3. Public filing of such reports.
4. Election of officers by secret ballot.
5. Public accounting of all welfare funds.
6. Guarantee of civil rights to all union members.
7. Legal process in court to protect these rights.

Planetarium Guests Have Realistic Trip to the Moon

By RALPH DIGGTON
LOS ANGELES (AP) — The rockets roar, your seat trembles and—whoosh—you're off to the moon.

If you could be aboard the moon missile expected to blast off from Cape Canaveral Sunday you'd see and hear about the same things 20,000 Griffith Park Planetarium visitors experience every month.

Assuming, of course, that the moon is anything like scientists believe it to be.

It's an amazingly realistic production, this mock-up moon trip, completed with sound and color. So let's take the 60-cent grand tour:

You and 200 others are seated in a big domed room. The lights dim and you lean back against a headrest. Lighting effects transform the dome into the nose of a space ship pointed toward the moon, some 236,000 miles away.

Dr. C. H. Clemmishaw, planetarium director, begins a running commentary. As he talks the moon comes nearer and nearer.

The planetarium round trip takes 45 minutes; Sunday's lunar probe missile will take almost three days one way, if it gets there.

"We scientists know that a great deal of luck will be involved if the first attempt is a success," says Dr. Clemmishaw. "Here is just one of the reasons."

A huge meteorite looms up in front of the space ship, then spins off to one side in the nick of time and the space ship continues, eventually landing on the moon.

As you step out of the space ship, the dome lights change and you see a scene of transcendent beauty. Sharp crags, unrooded by atmosphere and water, stab thousands of feet upward. Crevices as big as the Grand Canyon break the monotony of the lunar plains. The sun, unfiltered by earthly haze, is rising in all its naked fury.

On the far horizon the earth comes into view, its continents and vast oceans barely visible through rainbow-hued clouds. It's awesome.

Bearded Scientists Hop as Navy Blimp Nears Island

IN NAVY BLIMP OVER FLETCHER ICE ISLAND (Delayed) — Bearded scientists waved and danced in the icy streets today when the Navy's arctic hopping blimp appeared over this floating ice island.

It was their first visual contact with the outside world since the last plane landed here in June. Despite a heavy layer of white fog, pilot Henry Collins of Conshohocken, Pa., brought the huge silver airship low enough to circle the camp several times and make a mail drop.

Parka clad men poured out of the one story huts as the oil skin packets fluttered down to the gray blue ice.

Fletcher's Ice Island, also known as T-3, is a 45-square mile chunk of ice drifting in the Arctic Ocean about 160 miles northwest of Borden Island and 600 miles south of the Pole.

It was spotted in 1947 by Wing Cmdr. Keith R. Greenaway of the Royal Canadian Air Force. He is serving as navigator aboard the U. S. blimp in its current cruise over the Arctic Ocean.

Since its discovery, the kidney shaped island has drifted more than 3,000 miles in a clockwise direction on the North American side of the Pole and is now close to the spot where Greenaway, then on a polar flight, first photographed it.

It is moving at the rate of 1.2 miles a day. Col. Joe Fletcher of the U. S. Air Force, for whom the island is named, made the first airplane landing on the island in 1952 to set up a scientific station that has been operated intermittently since.

The island actually is an iceberg 160 feet thick but only about 15 to 30 feet above the water. It is believed to have broken off from the Ellesmere ice shelf.

It is now occupied by about 24 scientists and Air Force supporting personnel who man a weather station and conduct research in oceanography, meteorology, earth sciences and ionospheric measurements in connection with the International Geophysical Year.

The men remain at the remote outposts for anywhere from three months to one year. In summer when the sun shines night and day they seldom see a plane or receive mail because their landing strip on the ice is covered with a soft layer of slush and the ice is broken into little watery rivulets.

With its arrival at T-3 at the height of the midnight sun season, the blimp was able to show its stuff as a vehicle for supporting arctic research.

Observers from the Office of Naval Research watched closely as the blimp flew low and slow—something no other aircraft can do.

Guy Harris, a researcher for the Navy Underwater Sound Laboratories at New London, Conn., dropped hydrostatic depth charges from the blimp's aft observation station into the ice choked sea.

Scientists on T-3 will measure the acoustical effects of the charges. Elsewhere in the blimp at portholes and in the glassed in cockpit, hydrographers and aerial photographers studied the floating island, and the movie fans in the crew poked cameras of every size and shape out of every available window.

This reporter, representing the entire American press, dropped an improvised Associated Press flag onto the island to stake a future claim for the AP and the world's only floating news bureau.

Algerian Hitchhiking Easy But Not Necessarily Safe

By ANDREW BOROWICZ
CONSTANTINE, Algeria (AP)—A rickety truck creaked to a halt at a French road control post at Biskra about 120 miles south of here. Its Moslem driver lazily stepped out to give his name.

"That's your safest ride," whispered a French sentry to an American hitch-hiker. "It's a rebel supply truck. We have to let some of them go. In this way the rebels don't mine the roads and our own trucks can travel in safety too."

Hitchhiking through rebel infested eastern Algeria is easy but not necessarily safe.

All you have to do is wait at road control posts where every vehicle—civilian or military—has to register.

Along the road north—past the famous El Kantara Canyon—lie remnants of trucks burned by the rebels. Broken telephone poles clutter the roadside.

Homes along the road are battered, destroyed by the rebels. On the ruins, the French have painted huge signs saying, "The rebellion means death and destruction. Rally to victory, France."

Here and there, new villages have been erected by the French. Moslems live in them under military guard.

"The rebels kill everybody—the French and Moslems alike," said a Moslem motorist. "They don't care who travels here. They shoot without asking."

"This war will continue," said another. "We can fight for a long time. Independence must come."

And a Moslem truck driver told about the woman he saw.

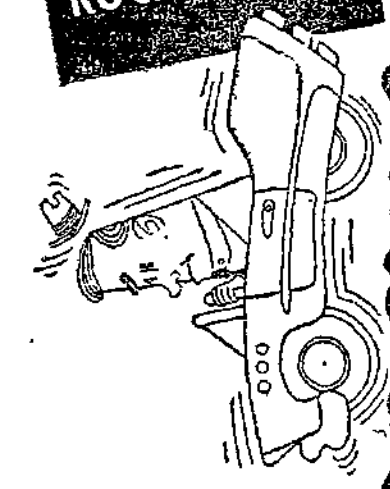

"She just looked out of her window after a grenade blew up and they shot her between the eyes. Mother of five children."

"Who shot her, the French or the rebels?" the American asked. "The French don't shoot civilians, monsieur."

"The French come and get you at night," said another Moslem motorist. "Then they attach these electric wires to your wrist and ask questions. This does not leave any marks."

"There were two grenades here today," said a Moslem taxi driver in Constantine, the end of the hitchhiking journey. "All victims were Moslems."

HERE'S THE 'HOW' OF SQUEEZE PLAY

The basis of the squeeze play is pressure. You use your low cards to force a defender to discard some of his high cards.

The simplest squeeze is the one-way pressure squeeze on one opponent in two suits. In today's hand South wins the opening lead of the king of spades with dummy's ace and notes that he only has 12 tricks and no apparent change for the 13th.

After a little thought about partners who bid grand slams, South sees some hope. West is marked with the queen of spades. Maybe it is singleton, so South trumps the four of spades in his own hand just in case.

The queen does not drop, so now South draws trumps, cashes the two clubs and runs the rest of his trumps. Dummy's

Highways Dep't Patronage System Denounced in Report

By LEONARD A. UNGER

HARRISBURG (AP)—The political patronage system in the State Highways Department was under attack today from a private research group which called for a complete shakeup of the road-building agency.

"The political patronage system which is traditional in Pennsylvania is the basic problem underlying virtually all of the difficulties of achieving effective and economical highway administration," said the Automotive Safety Foundation.

It added in a report presented to Gov. Leader at a news conference Monday that the only permanent solution was to take the department out of politics. It said no one today is to blame for the situation since political patronage has been prevalent for more than 50 years.

Two other principal deficiencies, the report said, are the lack of a permanent career organization and lack of continuity in highway planning and development.

The governor, in his first news conference since last March, said many of the committee's recommendations already are being implemented.

Leader said he agreed with about 99 per cent of the long list of recommendations in the report and said bills to carry them out would be prepared for presentation to the 1959 Legislature.

The inquiry by the private research agency resulted from an effort by the 1957 Legislature to look into highway operations. Republicans in the House pushed through a bill setting up an inquiry but it died in the Senate, also GOP-controlled.

The governor then directed the State Planning Board, headed by John Robin, former secretary of commerce, to look into the Highways Department. The board hired the foundation to do the job.

last four cards are the ace-king-small of diamonds and the jack of spades.

West has to discard before dummy and must go down to two diamonds on order to retain the spade queen. Since East had started with only two
